GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE

I have the honour to forward herewith a copy of the resolution of the Municipal Council, Kalar passed at their meeting held on 27/10/46 and to state that the collection of toll in the Municipality is being managed Departmentally. Two peons have been employed for the collection of toll and the Octroi establishment viz., Octroi Mustaddi and 3 Octroi peons have also been deputed to attend to the collection of toll in addition to their duty. In consideration of this extra work, it is reported that the Octroi establishment was given an allowance of Rupee one each per month during the year 1941-42, allowance being sanctioned in this office letter No 45,C 515/41-42 dated 1st September 1941. No allowance was given thereafter up till now. The Octroi Establishment have petitioned to the President on 20/10/46 for payment of an allowance of Rs 2/- each per month for their extra work and the Municipal Council who have considered this question have resolved at their meeting held on 27/10/46 that an allowance of Rupee one each per month to the Octroi establishment may be paid during the current year, cost being met out of the closing balance of the Council as no budget provision has been made.
